

Honoring Parents

Selected Texts

Pastor Jesse Waggoner- January 2, 2005 AM
Part 1 of a series entitled. "Family Portraits"

Introduction:

Our first relationship is based on honor.

I. Understand the Principle of Honoring

- A. It is a command (Ephesians 6:2)
- B. It is a command with a promise (Ephesians 6:3)
- C. It is a command without a loophole (Matthew 15:1-9)

DQ: Do you have a firm grasp on this principle?

II. Understand the Practice of Honoring

- A. In childhood (Luke 2:51)
 - 1. Focus on being in subjection
 - 2. Learn to respect
- B. In young adulthood (Mark 3:21, 31-35)
 - 1. Focus on shifting the subjection to God
 - 2. Express respect
- C. In older adulthood (John 19:25-27)
 - 1. Focus on care for parents
 - 2. Show respect

DQ: Do you practice honoring your parents?

Conclusion:

Honoring parents is best for you, your family, and society.

Honoring Parents

Selected Texts

Pastor Jesse Waggoner- January 2, 2005 AM

Part 1 of a series entitled. "Family Portraits"

Introduction:

Our first relationship is based on _____.

I. Understand the _____ of Honoring

A. It is a _____ (Ephesians 6:2)

B. It is a _____ with a _____ (Ephesians 6:3)

C. It is a _____ without a _____ (Matthew 15:1-9)

DQ: Do you have a firm _____ on this _____?

II. Understand the _____ of Honoring

A. In childhood (Luke 2:51)

1. Focus on being in _____

2. Learn to _____

B. In young adulthood (Mark 3:21, 31-35)

1. Focus on shifting the _____ to God

2. Express _____

C. In older adulthood (John 19:25-27)

1. Focus on _____ for parents

2. Show _____

DQ: Do you _____ your parents?

Conclusion:

Honoring _____ is best for _____,
your _____, and _____.